

Spiros has a number of long-standing clients who rely on us as a vendor through job changes and new management. Candace Kirt has been a customer of Spiros since 2001, and we've had the pleasure of completing a multitude of challenging projects with her.

“Spiros has a great focus on customer service, and they recognize that even though you have the business today, it does not mean you have it forever. They constantly look to improve themselves and make themselves more of an asset to the customer. One of the things I enjoy most about working with Spiros is that I know no matter what the situation, I will always get what I need.”
